YAI YOUTH NATIONALS 2025

03 MAY TO 10 MAY 2025

The opening ceremony of the YAI Youth Nationals 2025 was held with great enthusiasm and patriotic fervour on 06 May 2025 at Marve Beach, HBTC. Organized under the aegis of the Yachting Association of India (YAI), the championship marks a premier event on India's sailing calendar, bringing together the nation's most promising young sailors to compete in a range of youth sailing classes.

The event was graced by Major General Gaurav Kaushal, SM, VSM, Deputy Commandant, College of Military Engineering, who presided as the Chief Guest. In his address, Maj Gen Kaushal lauded the spirit and discipline of the participating youth, encouraging them to embrace the values of perseverance, teamwork, and resilience both on and off the water. He emphasized the importance of such national-level competitions in shaping the future of Indian sailing and fostering camaraderie among the younger generation, while declaring the event open.

With ideal sailing conditions at Marve Beach and a strong lineup of participants, the YAI Youth Nationals 2025 promises to be a thrilling and high-calibre competition. The event not only serves as a platform for athletic excellence but also plays a vital role in identifying and nurturing talent for future international representation.

This event was officially inaugurated by Maj Gen Gaurav Kaushal, VSM, SM Deputy Commandant, CME Pune and the racing commences with effect of 06th May 2025.
